Forsythe Residential are delighted to present to market, this chain-free, detached bungalow in a desirable part of Jordanstown. Situated on a prime corner site, this home is a generous size. Although modernisation is required throughout, it has an abundance of good features and would make an excellent home to downsize to. It benefits from various nearby amenities, including those of the neighbouring Whiteabbey Village. There are great bus and rail options available and the M5 motorway onslip is only 5-min away by car.

Internally, it comprises of hallway through to living room, additional lounge/dining room, open plan kitchen/dining room, toilet/utility space, four well proportioned bedrooms, and modern bathroom. Externally there is a tarmac driveway for parking, and generous gardens surrounding the property - finished in lawn with hedging for ultimate privacy. Further desirable attributes include an integrated garage and uPVC windows and doors with double glazing.
